

Observable complementarity in Kiselev inference

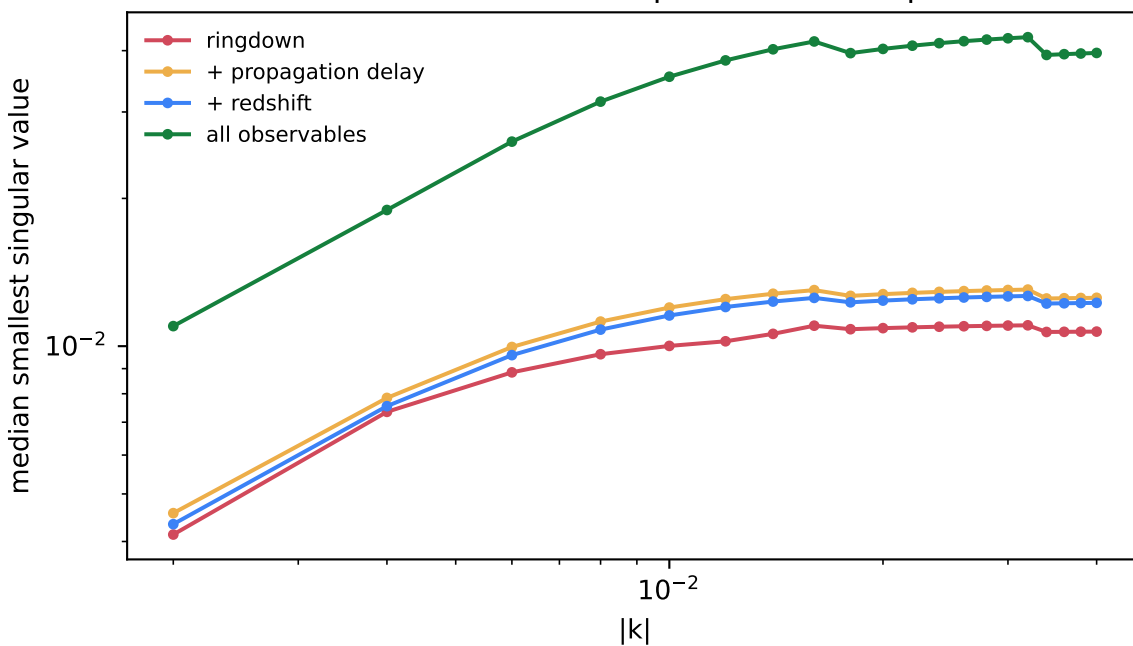

Matched spatial-block prediction

Information added near, but not at, $k=0$

Information about the second parameter collapses as $k \rightarrow 0$

Exact structural non-identifiability remains

